NOTICE OF INTERVENTION OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LETTER CARRIERS, AFL-CIO

The National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO (“NALC”) submits this notice of intervention in the above-referenced proceeding.

Persons to receive service:

1. Peter D. DeChiara, Cohen, Weiss and Simon LLP, 900 Third Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10022, pdechiara@cwsny.com
2. Kate M. Swearngen, Cohen, Weiss and Simon LLP, 900 Third Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10022, kswearngen@cwsny.com.
3. James Hollander, National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO, 100 Indiana Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001, Holland@NALC.org

NALC’s interest in the issues:

NALC’s interest in the issues is based both on its role as a major mailer of packages to its approximately 280,000 members and as a major stakeholder in the United States Postal Service (“USPS”) whose members are employed as city letter carriers by USPS and who care deeply about its financial viability.

NALC’s position on the proposed changes in services:

NALC's position is that the Commission and USPS should pursue policy changes that generate far greater net savings than the proposed service standard changes and that would not adversely affect delivery times or result in reduced mail volume. Among these policy changes are reforms to the manner in which USPS's massive retirement funds are invested.

Whether NALC requests a hearing:

NALC neither supports nor opposes the use of public hearing in this proceeding.

Whether NALC intends to participate actively in the hearing:

NALC will actively participate in whatever processes are used to conduct this request for an advisory opinion.
